

Welcome to L'Atelier des Langues

Our school

- Located between the pleasant areas of Les Batignolles and Montmartre, L'Atelier des Langues is a friendly language school whose core business is teaching languages to private students or mini-groups of adults.
- At L'Atelier des Langues, active student participation is a key point that we apply through modern teaching methods based on oral communication as well as through a wide choice of course types, lengths and levels, in order to be able to offer a « tailor-made » programme to our students. We pay great attention to our students' needs and every client can rely on our school in terms of follow-up and ability to optimise individual progress.

Our team

- All our teachers are fully qualified and have a great teaching experience. They are selected on the basis of their personal qualities, kindness, ability to coordinate groups, dynamism and instinctive understanding of students' needs.

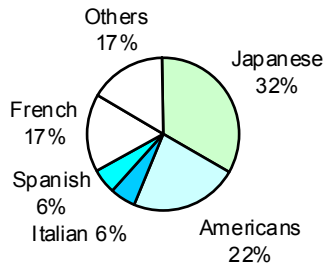

Our major strengths

- « Tailor-made » courses in a friendly atmosphere.
- Modern teaching methods based on oral communication.
- Competent teachers and thorough student support.
